DEATH OF A CURIOUS CHARACTER

"Age Handle Smith" died in poverty at Bellevue hospital, New York, on Wednesday, "He was too positive and dogmatic to make friends," says the Tribune, "and too scrupulously honest to make money. There was nothing he would not in his liberality give away except the opportunity for an argument He was nover known to decline a discussion or to be convinced. His great natural ability was untrained, and it was the love of disputation, not the search for truth, which gave him great power, in a rude way, as a street-corner, workshop logician. He was famous in his time along the docks and in the ship yards of this city. He carned his living by making handles for adzes, mallets, and other ship carpentry tools; and it is recorded in his honor that he would not take adequate pay for his work. His admiration for Horace Greeley, whom in some characteristics he resembled, was expressed on hearing of his nomination for the presidency by making the exclamation: I'll make make him the best axe handle he ever used;' and he kept his word. His love for argument often led him to abandon work and for hours follow a disputant Red, White and Blue Bunting, for about the streets. He was a hot advocate for temperance, and white always a religious man, he was a Baptist, Universalist, and Mothedist by turns, and March. neither long. The idea of a personal devil he indignantly discarded, and he charged modern preachers with trying to save the body and not the soul from hell. Every political campaign in this city for over a quarter of a century found him active among the ship carponters, by whom he was greatly; beloved, and with whom he was very influential. Of course, with these peculiarities of temperament and with-400 Pieces Hamburg Edglugs, new out any definite object in life-except potterns, and very cheap, at Linn & to argue—he died in poverty."

TEXAS AMUSEMENTS.

A Texas outrage of a poculiar nature is reported to the Troy Times by a Richmond (Tex.) correspondent. H C. Herndon, a planter, caused a white man named Joseph Ryan to be whipped by some convicts whom he had hired from the penitentiary. Next day the case was examed before William were elicited: Ryan was a stranger in search of employment, and had on a pair of penitentialy made brogans, but otherwise he was well dressed. When Herndon, the planter, with W. Bertrand, a sergeant of the convict force, and Gus De Lee, a convict guard, sus pected that he might be an escaped convict for whom a reward could b had, they concluded that they would whip him and make him acknowledge that he was. When they called him to them, and Herndon said, "Boys, go through him," the negroes (convicts) seemed disinclined to act, and Herndon drow his revolver on them and said "God d-n you! do what I tell you!" They then proceeded to whip him until his back, from the loins to the knees, was a mass of bruised and swollen flesh In the language of a witness, "The skin was pretty well whipped off." After the examination of the witnesses, the court held the prisoners to answer at the district court in the sum of $1, 300. "It is very common about here," adds the correspondent, "to whip a strange negro to make him acknowledge he is a conviot, or for some trivial offonse; but this is the first time they have whipped a white man. The whipping of negroes has become so common that they think a white man. because he is a stranger, can be outraged, and they find, as they have in this instance, an apologist. The law is but

A Hendricks band is now parading the streets, much to the gratification of the crowds. Meanwhile, the anti-Tilden leaders, who are seeking for somebody strong enough to earry Obio, Ladiana' and New York, are working with great; onorgy. A conference was hold last night, which was attended by representatives from different delegations opposed to Tilden. Speeches were made by Roger A. Pryor, James Kelly and others, and were received with a good deal of enthusiasm. The object of the meeting was to see what they can count on .-They report that they are strong enough to defeat Tilden. They indicate no choice. This meeting has been responded to, to-day, by work on the part of Tilden, that will count in the convention. Delegations of Massachusetts and Wisconsin hold meetings and agreed to east the vote of each dologa tion for Tildon. This is a decided and important gain. Several state delegations met and harmony of feeling among Democrats, organized this morning. Among them they came here as Democrats and should support whoever was nominated.

Francis Kernan, from New York mrde a brief response, counseling harmony, and assuring the Indiana delegation that New York would meet them in the same spirit as the gentleman who had addressed them, and if it turns out that the convention should designate Gov. Hendricks as the strongest man with whom to win success, New York will heartily support him. The hopes of Tilden's opponents now center around Pennsylvania, who have resolved to vote for Hancock, with no second choice. This action, they think. will draw to their support enough states on the second ballot to prevent the nomination of Tilden, and then William Alleo, of Obio, being out of the way, the vote of that state would be added to the Hancock column, and be to lowed later by Handricks' supporters. This is their plan, and if it should succeed. Pennsylvania would be able to give the second place to Hon. Thomas Ewing. The triends of Hendricks evidently see the critical nature of the situation and are aiding in the effort to prevent a two-thirds vote for Tilden .-That now is the only hope left to the opponents of the New York candidate. The count for Tilden now exceeds 400. The Tammany leaders are so much disof Diaine's support at Cincinnati, and couraged as to be about ready to give up the contest.

Y., secretary. liceolations reported by Judge Otterbourg were adopted; the first of which declares that the partisan war should cease, and that the old fraternal feeling of a people at peace with itself, be restored, and that the corruptionists of public service should be vigorously prosecuted.

The second resolution declares that. according to the old time democratic doctrine, gold and silver is the only money known to the constitution of the United States, that the legal tender notes are no money, but constitute a debt long ago due, and that the finan cial policy of the federal government should be so directed as to restore speçio payment.

The third resolution opposes the present tariff.

The fourth resolution says the main tenance of public schools by state au-thority should be continued in all its efficiency, free from sectarian control and that the proposed transfer of schools to federal rule, by constitutional amend ments, meets their disapproval.

The fifth resolution declarss that the exposure of frauds and peculations of the present administration have been written with livid lines of fire over the country, that the great duty of the hour is to cleanso the public service, in all its branches, of the miscreants, who, void of virtue themselves, have presuracd that the sense of mornlity is dead in the people. terday afternoon a tramp called at the residence of Officer Miscahelder, in the northwest part of the city, and asked for something to eat. It so happened that Mr. M. was at home, and told the fellow to leave, who became somewhat enraged at his rebuff, and talked back to the officer, who at the time was dressing a sore per lice factor field a coton, and five course on his need. While he was getting per lice for each stress on the retreet to five feeling for the fellow went to his coat and vest on the fellow went to the residence of Mr. Barnett, near by and inquired who lived at the house he had just left, and upon being told that a policeman lived there, he said he had better he getting away. By this time Officer Miseabelder came out and started in pursuit of the vagrant, who, as he went along, was joined by comrades, who had laid down beside the tailroad track to share whatever their chum might be able to get. The company, which consisted of about a dozen, then harried in a westerly direction on the T., W. & W. R. R. track, with Misenhelder in pursuit, and the last seen of them they were making good time beyand the city limits. The fact of tramps being put to work here inspires that class of persons with a wholesome fear of falling into the hands of officers. A Horse Shows Proper Resentment .-Yesterday afternoon a horse belonging to William Downing was being rode along Merchant street by some boy, who for some reason fell to beating the animal. This kind of treatment the horse did not propose to stand, and he reared and pitched about until he unhorsed his rider and made his escape. In running to prevent being caught he came in contact with a lamp-post in front of Wingate's lamp store with such force as to knock the glass from the top, which in falling came upon a fluid stove which stood at the edge of the walk for exhibition, considerably damaging it. The horse then ran south to East Main street, and turning down that thoroughtere made good his escape with the saddle and bridle. It is teared that in running from the injury as to be able to walk .-against the post the animal may have injured himself.

Thieves and Lightning .- Some time last week a Mr. Clark, of Illini, had a valuable house stolen, which has not yet been recovered. During the severe storm Decatur, and Miss Libbie Robison, of of Sunday night last, another fine horse belonging to the same man was so badly frightened by a peal of thunder that he ran against a stake in the fence, running It into him several inches. He was found in the morning with a terrible wound, which it is thought will ruin him. When both thieves and lightning get after a man's stock it is rather liable to get Scalpers is the name of the Hayes & Wheeler clubs organizing through the country. The declaration of the gallant General, that "any man who would go home to run for Congress in such a time as "this ought to be scalped," is the origin of the name. This expression of Hayes is likely to become as popular as that of his predecessor in the presidential chair-"I propose to fight it out on of people that will be likely to be in this line if it takes all summer." Both expressions had the ring of genuine grit, and in that regard are indices of the characters of the two men. Attention, Buttaillon! - Everybody should remember the meeting of veterans at the firemen's headquarters to night. Come in, gentlemen, and enroll your names for service or the Fourth.-There is no time to spare, and a full meeting is particularly desired.

Horse Killed by Lightning .- in another place will be found accounts of damage done by lightning in the town tended, and was well enjoyed by those of Illini on Sunday night last. We have since learned that during the same storm a house belonging to Mr. Park of the most part the corn crop is looking that town, was struck by lightning and well throughout the town. Most of the | killed outright, while another bolonging tarmers have been able to cultivate, and to the same gentleman was disabled and the fields are quite clear of weeds. The probably spoiled. Struck by Lightning.-During the calities in the county the corn has been severe thunder storm of Sunday night last, the Congregational church in Illini was struck by lightning, and the steeple was considerably shattered. The wonder is that the building was not set on Louis, report that they are troubled to fire. As it is, the damage to it must be

A New Walk .- A new brick walk is to be laid in front of the store occupied by Curtis & Righter and J. M. Stockey, and also in front of W. F. Busher's shoe store. The work of taking away the old plank walk was commenced this morning. Over the balance of the distance between Water street and the old square, the plank walk will be repaired and left to do service for a year or two

June Regular Term, 1876. [Continued from yesterday.] BOARD MET PURSUANT TO ADJOURN MENT. Present same as on forencon.

22d, Mr. Perren Sticken, aged 7i years, same. 11 months and 19 days.

To A. A. Lowdorm I. For Medical attention Mr. Stickel was born at Oxford, Adams county, Pa., and united with the M E. church, at Mechanicsburg, in the same State, in 1839. He came to Illinois m 1860, where he has since lived, being highly respected by all who knew him. His funeral took place on Saturday, June 24th, at Wheatland, Rev. Horace Reed Serious Accident to Mrs. D. L. Allen.

-On Saturday afternoon Mrs. D. L. Allen, living just south of town, started to go into the basement of her dwelling down a stairway in which there is a turn near the bottom. Thinking that she had got to the turn in the stairway she attempted to turn her course accordingly, and in doing so stepped off at the side of the stairs and fell to the floor, fracturing the bone in the hip joint, known to surgeons as the femur, the fracture being inside of what is called the capsular ligament. The injury is considered a very serious one, even when it occurs in the case of a young person, and under the most favorable circumstance the patient sustaining it would not be able to walk in much less time than six months, and never fully recovers the use of the joint as perfectly as before the accident. In the case of Mrs. Allen, who is now past seventy, the fracture is greatly aggravated by advanced age, and it is quite doubtful whether she will so far recover Sho is skillfully attended by Drs. Ira N. Barnes and R. L. Walston.
